

Invitation „My experience of migration” photo exhibition

Have you been travelling abroad lately?
Are you happening to be an ex/present/future ERASMUS student?
Do you have relatives in a different country/continent?
Seeking for a fresh start in abroad?
Are you forced to leave your home?
BTW, what HOME means for you?

Above questions all related to migration, the world-wide social phenomenon heavily discussed in scientific, political spheres so as every-day conversations.

If you are interested in personal aspects, experiences, memories about migration and home you are welcome to join us on the vernissage of the EASTmig Photo Contest titled “My experience of migration”. Youngsters from Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, Slovakia and Ukraine will present their photos and share their opinions, views about migration.

Special part of the exhibition is titled “This is my life” and exhibit photos and essays of Armenian refugee children from Karabakh living in Yerevan, Armenia. Invited guests, partly Armenians living in Hungary will join us and tell their personal memories about home, homeland and homebuilding experiences in Hungary.
